

TOO MANY TOYS

(Purcell/Weber)

As performed by The Dad Beats!

Give me the train tracks. Give me the blocks.

Put all the lego back in its box.

Pack up the big top and send home the clowns.

This ain't a circus when you're not around.

Hand me that Elmo, surrender that bear.

Stuff all those dinosaurs under the stairs.

Shoo all the ducklings and round up the sheep

This farm's much quieter when you've gone to sleep

It is crowded and sad on your shelves,

Where the teddy bears cry to themselves.

You've got too many toys, you've got too many toys

You hardly ever play with all the other girls and boys

Your room is full of broken bits of games you once enjoyed.

I'm losing my mind and I just can't take any more.

I just can't take any more.

Somebody call for the jigsaw police.
All of your puzzles are missing a piece.
That robot's broken and this horse is lame.
These four tea sets are exactly the same.

We spend half of our life on our knees

Just to manage this chronic disease.

[Chorus]

One of these days, we'll give some toys away

Or send them on a spaceship for aliens to play

At Christmas time we'll hitch a ride with Santa on his sleigh

To a place where children have no toys to play with...

[Chorus]

Clean up, clean up, everybody do your aaaargh!
